WILL DISCUSS MERGER OF SEMINARIES

Possible merger of Lutheran seminaries at Gettysburg and Philadelphia will be among subjects slated for discussion at a meeting of a subcommittee of the Joint Commission on Lutheran Unity February 15 at Harrisburg.

Calling of the subcommittee was announced by the United Lutheran Church of America after a meeting in Chicago to lay the groundwork for merging the denomination's various divisions into a proposed "Lutheran Evangelical Church in America."

If there is an consolidation of the Gettysburg and Philadelphia schools, it would be part of "moves . . . under way which could result in reduction of the number of 'Lutheran' seminaries in the U. S. to eight."

The Rev. Dwight Putman, president of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the ULCA, said merger of the seminaries at Philadelphia and Gettysburg has been discussed "off and on" for the last 20 years.

He pointed out, however, that the latest discussion has stemmed from the necessity for expanding the seminary at Philadelphia and the difficulty of acquiring of space there.

Among possibilities discussed by representatives from Gettysburg and Philadelphia, he said, are the following:

Closing both seminaries and establishing one on "neutral" ground.

Merger into one seminary at either Philadelphia or Gettysburg. Continuing operation of both.

Dr. Putman said the theory behind the whole church consolidation movement, of which merged seminaries is only a part, is that that time has come for churches to join forces to meet challenges religion faces today and in the future.

Another American Gets Long Prison Sentence; Will Shoot Two Cubans

HAVANA (AP) — Another U.S. citizen faced a long prison sentence for alleged counter-revolutionary activities and two condemned enemies of Fidel Castro's regime were ordered before a firing squad today.

John V. Martino, an ailing Miami, Fla., businessman accused of serving as a link between anti-Castro forces in Cuba and Florida, was handed a 13-year sentence Friday. The prosecution had asked for a 20-year term.

Martino, 49, joins two other Americans convicted by revived military tribunals — pilot-adventurer Frank Austin Young, sentenced to 30 years; and Peter John Lambton of Nassau, Bahamas, given 25 years.

A fourth American, Miami Herald reporter James Buchanan, is being held for trial on charges of aiding Young in his brief escape from a Pinar del Rio prison last week.

Two Americans arrested last week when they came to Havana to join the Caribbean Legion were released Friday night. Military intelligence headquarters said the two — Edwin R. Eckersley, 26, of Portland, Ore., and Monty Mulph, 21, of Orem, Idaho — boarded a plane for Miami. The Legion is a loosely organized group of adventurers with the announced objective of overthrowing dictatorships.

Scheduled for execution today were two former soldiers of ex-President Fulgencio Batista, Luis Lara and Jose Morfi. They were convicted of plotting a military uprising against Prime Minister Castro's government.

Tried To Smuggle Woman
Martino was convicted of attempting to smuggle the wife of a former Batista army officer, Col. Esteban Ventura, out of Cuba and of carrying a bond of the White Rose Society, a counter-revolutionary group operating in the United States.

Martino was arrested an hour after his arrival in Havana July 23 and has been under prison hospital treatment since for a kidney stone condition.

COLLEGE IS GIVEN $2,000 IN TWO GRANTS

Receipt by Gettysburg College of unrestricted grants totalling $2,000 from two industrial philanthropies was announced today from the office of Gen. W. S. Paul, president.

Texaco, Inc., New York City, gave $1,500 under its aid-to-education program and the Alcoa Foundation granted $500 in connection with its scholarship program for Aluminum Company of America employees' children.

The foundation makes such a grant to each college which enrolls a scholarship winner. Miss Penelope Kunkel, Schuylkill Haven, a freshman at Gettysburg College, was awarded an Alcoa scholarship earlier this year. The grant will be forwarded at the rate of $125 each year Miss Kunkel is in residence. It may be used by the college for any purpose.

"We are happy to join with Gettysburg in a partnership which has as its objective the education and development of Penelope Kunkel," Otis C. McCreery, assistant secretary of the foundation, said in a letter to President Paul.

Scholarship recipients are selected by local committees on the basis of "high school records, demonstrated citizenship and leadership activities, and scholastic aptitude test scores," McCreery said.

Kerry King, Texaco, Inc., vice president . . . to forward this grant to you, and to extend every good wish for the continued progress of your vital work in the field of private education." The petroleum company's program provides assistance to 140 privately financed schools.

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

PARIS (AP)—President Eisenhower today urged French President Charles de Gaulle to give ground in his opposition to integrating France's military forces with those of its Western allies.

This was confirmed by authoritative sources after Eisenhower and De Gaulle met for 55 minutes following the opening session of a three-day Western summit meeting.

Eisenhower was reported to have supported Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, Herter earlier this week told the 15-nation NATO alliance ministerial meeting that an integrated European defense system was the basis on which the United States keeps troops on the Continent.

"Frank, Friendly Talks"

De Gaulle's reaction was not outlined. Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty, however, described the De Gaulle-Eisenhower talks as "very frank and friendly." He said they might get together again this weekend.

Earlier, De Gaulle, Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer opened their summit meeting in general agreement that an East-West summit session should be held.

Time-Honored Phone Numbers Cancel Out At 6 A.M. Sunday

At 6 o'clock Sunday morning the new Gettysburg Telephone directory will become the most read book in the community and at the same moment a lot of "old friends," which have been "speaking acquaintances" for many years, will pass from the classification of useful information to limbo of the out-dated and useless, soon to be forgotten.

A long list of Gettysburg telephone numbers that have been unchanged in decades and have been so well known that hundreds of calls are made daily without reference to the old telephone directory will be as out of date as yesterday's headlines.

Your grocer, your doctor, your pastor, your druggist, the police and fire engine house will have new numbers and the familiar old combination of digits no longer will bring results through the network of United Telephone lines.

Old Standbys Pass

Old standbys like 300 for Bickle's insurance office, 301 for the Bender Funeral Home, 391 for Dr. C. G. Crist and 137-X for Dr. Edgar A. Miller, who was county coroner before Dr. Crist, have been unchanged for years.

The Elks' home number has been 134 for more years than most of its present members have been on the rolls. 673 will not bring the borough police after 5:59 Sunday morning, nor will 221 get action from the state police. (Please Turn To Page 2)

Ike Tells De Gaulle To Integrate French Forces With Its Western Allies

Setup Working Group

The four leaders took up the drafting of specific negotiating proposals to be laid before Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at an East-West summit meeting next year.

A working group of diplomats from the four nations is expected to be set up to polish these proposals and to iron out differences.

In their meeting in De Gaulle's office, Eisenhower and the French President also took up Algeria, another sore point in relations between the two countries.

France is unhappy because the United States abstained recently in the United Nations on a resolution — opposed by Paris — urging the French and Algerian rebels to negotiate.

Frowned On U.S. Action

France also feels the United States should have given stronger support to De Gaulle's plan to give Algeria the right of self-determination after peace is restored in that North African territory.

Later they took up a communiqué Eisenhower signed in Tunis on his visit to Tunisia two days ago.

In the communiqué Eisenhower and Tunisian President Habib Bouguiba agreed the continued nationalist rebellion against France in Algeria constitutes a disturbing element in the world as East-West negotiations on nu-

PRISONER IS CHARGED WITH ROLE IN BREAK

Earl Leo Miller, 31, of Spry, Pa., Friday night pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder to three charges brought against him by Sheriff Dawson Miller as a result of his part in a break from the Adams County jail December 6.

Miller, with three other prisoners, overpowered Turnkey William E. "Johnny" Knox when he entered the cell block December 6, the sheriff said. Three of the men: Johnny Paul Washam, 26, of Antonio, Tex.; Edgar Allen Golden, 24, Galveston, Tex., and Guy E. Gross, 23, Gettysburg R. 1, escaped from the jail. Miller was captured in the jail by Sheriff Miller and two trustees.

Two Are Captured

Washam and Golden were captured this week in Virginia and are in prison there. Virginia police are searching for Gross who was reported with the other two there.

At the hearing Friday night Miller pleaded guilty to charges of jail break, conspiracy to commit an unlawful act (the jail break) and aggravated assault and battery based upon the beating given Knox by the escaping prisoners which, the sheriff said, caused a fracture of a leg bone.

BURGLARS HIT IN NEW OXFORD

Burglars broke into the Farm Bureau building at New Oxford early this morning, removing a portable electric heater, two flashlights and four batteries, but failing to open two safes and a cash drawer.

State and New Oxford police, conducting the investigation, said the entry occurred "between 1:30 and 7 o'clock this morning" and termed the burglars "very much amateurs."

The intruders pried open two doors into the building—one at the side and the other at the rear of the office.

They attempted to open two safes and failed in both endeavors, succeeding only in knocking the tops off pins holding the safe.

The burglars also sought to pry open a cash drawer without success. Police said that if the burglars had turned a key nearby they could have opened the cash drawer without any trouble and discovered that nothing is left in the drawer overnight.

HONOR WORLEY AT BIRTHDAY

Members of the House at Harrisburg sang "Happy Birthday" to Assemblyman Francis Worley from Adams County Friday evening after their dinner recess and later the speaker of the House called Mr. Worley to the speaker's chair to preside over adjournment of the 1959 session shortly before midnight.

Mr. Worley will be 46 next Wednesday. There was a speech in his honor before the birthday song and Mr. Worley responded briefly.

Earlier in the evening, the Adams County assemblyman had introduced a resolution, on which he also spoke with unanimous consent of the House members, urging that "the state government and its agents be requested and encouraged to require that Pennsylvania apples and other Pennsylvania products be handled and promoted by personnel handling such products."

The resolution, in which assemblymen from York and Lancaster Counties joined, referred to this section as "the garden spot of the world." Mr. Worley said the resolution was introduced as a result of his finding Washington state apples on sale in the state capital at Harrisburg recently.

PARISH WOMEN TO HOLD PARTY FOR CHILDREN

A covered dish supper preceded the business meeting of the St. Aloysius Parish Council of Catholic Women held on Thursday evening in the parish hall. Exchange of gifts followed the meal.

Miss A. Marie Budde, president, was in charge of the business which opened with prayer to Our Lady of Good Counsel by the pastor, the Rev. William A. Boyle. Routine reports were heard from Mrs. Francis Prato and Mrs. C. Donald Bowser. The Christmas message from the national president of the National Council of Catholic Women was read by Mrs. Bowser and the message from the diocesan president, Miss Helen Bunty, on the theme of putting Christ back in Christmas was also read.

Tickets are available from the parish president for the annual dinner meeting of the Conewago Deanery Council to be held on Tuesday, January 26, at 6:30 p.m. in St. Joseph's Parish Hall, Hanover, at two dollars per ticket. Reservations must be made with the parish president a week in advance of the dinner.

Plan Kiddies' Party

Miss Budde announced that the annual collection for special diocesan activities will be received early in January. Eight hundred pounds of clothing were collected in the annual Thanksgiving clothing drive.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas party for the children of the school to be held next week. To curtail expenses several of the women and pastor volunteered to pay for the oranges to be given by Santa Claus to the children and the council will bear the remainder of the expenses. In addition to the children in the parochial school, those who will be first graders next year and the children of the Christian Doctrine class will also be treated, a total of 230.

There was a discussion on the discontinuance of the annual Halloween party for the children of the parochial school in 1960 due to the increased cost of sponsoring two parties within two months. The Christmas party will remain an annual event.

A gift will be sent to the council's adopted boy at Paradise Property and members are invited to remember him with greeting cards. It was decided to purchase some additional silver to be used at functions in the parish hall. A letter of thanks was read from James S. Cairns, vice president of serving the annual banquet to the Keystone Cabinet Co., for employees and guests of the company. It was voted to give a contribution of $10 to the Alpha Fire Company for the use of the company-owned tables.

County School Board Will Ask
State To Approve Reopening Of Fairfield High School In 1950:
The Pennsylvania State Council of Education will be asked by the Adams County School Board for permission to reopen the Fairfield high school in 1950. The school was closed in May 1947.

A resolution, approved by the board Thursday evening at a meeting in the court house, requests the state council to modify the Adams County Plan for Reorganization under Act 361 to change the Fairfield jointure from a 1 to 8 grade unit to a 1 to 12 grade organization.

If approval is given, the Fairfield jointure will add grade nine to its courses of study next year, and add the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades each succeeding year so that by the fall of 1953 a complete 12-year course of studies will be given in the Fairfield area. At present Fairfield area students in grades eight through 12 attend Gettysburg and Washington Twp. high schools.

Sportsmen Hold Election: Harold Deardorff, Fairfield, was elected president of the Adams County Fish and Game Association at a meeting of the organization Thursday night at Fairfield.

Selected as vice president was Miles Biesecker, Cashtown. Renamed as secretary and treasurer respectively were Ray Biesecker, Gettysburg R. D., and Clark Rebert, Orrtanna.

Six Countians Candidates For FFA Honor: Six Adams county youngsters, four students of Gettysburg high and two of East Berlin high school, have been selected for the Keystone Farmer degree. It was announced today. Awarding of the Keystone Farmer degree will take place at the Pennsylvania FFA association meeting in the Forum at Harrisburg during Farm Show Week.

The Adams countians selected for the honor are Ralph L. Seifert and John Raymond Miller, students at East Berlin; William Durboraw, J. Kenneth Biesecker, Jay L. Waybright and George Musselman, all students at Gettysburg high school.

Glenn Jacobs Is Re-elected Head Of County Group: Glenn Jacobs, East Berlin R. 1, chairman of the Reading township board of supervisors, was re-elected president of the Adams County Township Road Supervisors, Auditors, Assessors and Tax Collectors Association Wednesday afternoon at the 32nd annual convention of the group held at the court house.

Other officers renamed for second terms were: Emory D. Fussell, Biglerville R. 2, Butler township, vice president; Ervin J. Baker, East Berlin R. 2, Hamilton township, secretary; and Mearl Heikes, East Berlin R. 1, Latimore township, treasurer.

PCBL Council President Is Renamed Here: Miss Genevieve Rose was re-elected president of the Queen of Peace Council No. 11, Pennsylvania Catholic Beneficial League, at a meeting held in the social room of St. Francis Xavier Catholic school Monday night.

Lions Buy Two Hospital Beds For Community: On recommendation of its health and welfare committee, the Gettysburg Lions club Monday evening approved the purchase of two hospital beds and a walker for use in private homes in this community.

In urging the action, the committee pointed out that one hospital bed and walker are now available through the Red Cross Chapter here but that there are many more calls upon the Red Cross for such equipment than the present supply of one bed and one walker can accommodate.

Today's Talk

HEAVEN'S FIRST LAW

I like to go into an orderly home, office, store, town. There is something stimulating as well as something restful and inspiring about them all.

Above any of these, though, I place in importance the orderly mind. The brain that knows the when, where and how of things has the power and initiative to bring them into being at the right time, and has already tapped the springs of genius.

The first step in the success of any enterprise is to put things in order. The next step is to keep things in order.

Order is a habit. It's a difficult habit, perhaps, to keep up all the time, but it's an easy one to begin. And the sooner you begin the habit of order, the longer you will be able to keep it going. Take the first example from the universe. It is a perfect picture of order.

The more orderly you are, the more sure you become. You learn to serve and to lead. You learn to give and to take. And you learn to save. In fact, some wise thinker has written somewhere, this—

"Order is Heaven's first law."

Just Folks

THE MAN WHO HELPS
It isn't the man who slaps my back
And bids me smile when I'm feeling blue;
It isn't the man who grasps my hand
And listens my hardluck story through;
It isn't the man with the cheerful words
Who does the most when the wolves all yelp,
But the man who digs in his pocket deep
And says: "Old pal, will a five-spot help?"A cheery smile helps some, I know;
And a kindly word makes a fellow start
Anew sometimes when his burden's great.
But the way to get at a fellow's heart
Is to go to him now in his hour of need
And scatter his clouds of gloom and doubt;
Put your hand in your pocket and say to him:
"Old pal, will a five-spot help you out?"

Nun Killed, Four Injured In Crash

BRYN MAWR, Pa. (AP)—A car carrying six nuns collided with another car at an intersection Friday. One nun was killed and four injured.

The victim was Mother Candida Becansca, 51, a member of the religious congregation of the Hand Maids of the Sacred Heart, as were the others.

Three of the nuns were admitted to Bryn Mawr Hospital, but were reported in satisfactory condition. All six lived at the Ancilla Domini Academy in Philadelphia. They had just left Holy Child School near Rosemont College when their car collided with one driven by Mrs. Marjorie Duffield, of Villanova. She was not injured.

The first patent for chewing gum was issued to William F. Semple of Mount Vernon, Ohio, on December 28, 1869.

More Ferree Family Notes

The historical and genealogical study of the Round Hill Presbyterian burial ground, and the families buried therein, is continued at this time with some additional data on the Ferree family.

Last week the inscription from the marker at the grave of William Wilson Holtzinger, located between that of Jacob Ferree and his daughter, Hannah Ferree, was given. Some degree of relationship must have existed between William Holtzinger and the Ferree family but at the present time "the how and where" is not known.

Before concluding the notes on the Ferree family it might be well to note that Jacob Ferree was a soldier of the American Revolution and his son, Peter Ferree, served in the War of 1812-1814. Insofar as is known Jacob Ferree and his wife, Mary Ferree, are buried in the Round Hill graveyard in unmarked graves.

In the "Republican Compiler" for Tuesday, December 16, 1834, the following appeared:

"Pennsylvania Legislature.—Mr. Thaddeus Stevens presented the petitions of Elizabeth Starry and Mary Ferree, widows of Revolutionary soldiers, and also of Alexander Russell, Thomas Adams and Emanuel Ziegler, soldiers of the Revolution, praying for relief."

Given State Pension

Note: According to records on file in the Pennsylvania Division of Archives Mary Ferree, the widow of Jacob Ferree, was granted a pension by the state, in recognition of her husband's services in the War of the American Revolution.

The next grave on the list of inscriptions from the Round Hill burial ground is that of Phebe T. Jones, the wife of John W. Hill, who is buried in the Jones family burial plot.

1. "Prepare to meet thy God. The dying counsel of Phebe T. Jones of John W. Hill, and daughter of William &amp; Martha Jones/ She arose with the sun on the morning of October 3, 1857, in the full hope of spending an eternal day of glory with Christ. "My son for your portion/ choose my Saviour/ In prosperity He will guide and counsel thee/ In adversity He will sustain and cheer thee/ And in death on His bosom He will pillow thy fainting head."

"My witness is in Heaven/ My record is on high/ Aged 23 years."

Adams Sentinel, Monday, October 17, 1857

Lingering Illness Is Fatal

"Died, October 3, 1857, after a lingering illness, Mrs. Phebe T. Hill, wife of John W. Hill, and daughter of William &amp; Martha Jones, this county, aged 23 years, 1 month and 10 days."

The next grave on the Round Hill survey is, at the present time, unmarked. The data on this burial was obtained from the "Vital Statistics" of Adams County—as follows:

"Henry Hinerd, white, male. Aged 75 years, 9 months and 22 days."

Name of father of the deceased—Henry Hinerd.

Name of mother of deceased—Catharine Hinerd.

Occupation of deceased—Shoemaker.

Place of birth of deceased—York County, Pennsylvania.

Wife of deceased—Hannah Hinerd.

Living issue of deceased—one daughter—Catharine Hinerd.

Date of birth of deceased—June 5, 1778.

Date of death of deceased—March 27, 1854.

Cause of death—Consumption.

Place of death—Latimore Twp., Adams County, Pennsylvania.

Place of burial—Round Hill Presbyterian Cemetery, Reading Twp., Adams County, Pa."

The Kenyon Family

There is nothing known, at this

Adams Centinel, April 10, 1854—

Died, March 27, 1854, very suddenly, of consumption, Mr. Henry Hinerd, of Latimore Twp., this county, in the 77th year of his age."

Note: There is no further data in the old newspaper files pertaining to Henry Hinerd or his family. It is quite possible that his wife, Hannah Hinerd, and his daughter, Catharine Hinerd, are also buried at Round Hill in unmarked graves. It will be noted at this time that the exact location of Henry Hinerd's grave at the Round Hill is unknown.

The next stop at Round Hill is made at the Johnson plot and here there is only one marked grave—

2. "Sacred to the memory of Agnes/ wife of William Johnston/ Died March 18, 1833/ Aged 73 years."

The obituary of Agnes Johnston was not published in the local papers but the second marriage of her husband, some three years later, was noted—

Adams Centinel, September 19, 1836—

"Married, September 6, 1836, by Joseph R. Henry, Esq., Mr. William Johnston, an old Revolutionary soldier, of Hampton, this county, to Mrs. Mary Woods, of Abbotstown, this county."

Limited Information

The following data on the Johnston family of the Round Hill vicinity appeared in the Adams Centinel (later the Star and Sentinel) under the dates given.

1. Monday, March 11, 1833—

"Married, March 5, 1833, by the Rev. Daniel Gottwald, Mr. Samuel Elliott to Miss Mary Ann Johnston, both of Reading Twp., this county."

Note: Mary Ann (Johnston) Elliott was probably a daughter of William and Agnes Johnston. Nothing further is known pertaining to this woman or any of her descendants.

2. Monday, February 11, 1833—

"Married, Wednesday, February 6, 1839, by the Rev. William Paxton, D.D., William Johnston, Esq., to Miss _____ (formerly of Franklin County, Pennsylvania), both of Fairfield, Adams County, Pennsylvania."

Note: Nothing is known pertaining to this branch of the Johnston family—but it is quite possible that William Johnston, Esq., was a son of William Johnston, soldier of the American Revolution.

3. Monday, May 31, 1841—

Soldier Of Revolution

"Died, Friday, May 22, 1841, Mr. William Johnston, of Hampton, this county, an old soldier of the revolution, in the 85th year of his age."

Note: The husband of Agnes Johnston, who survived his first wife some eight years. Without a doubt William Johnston is buried in the Round Hill Graveyard at the side of his first wife. If the grave of this soldier was ever marked the stone has long since disappeared.

4. Monday, August 2, 1841—

"Died, July 17, 1841, Elizabeth Agnes Johnston, infant daughter of William and Charlotte Johnston, of Fairfield, this county, aged 15 months."

Note: Probably a granddaughter of William and Agnes Johnston—for the little girl was given her grandmother's name of "Agnes."

This concludes, for the present time at least, the notes on the Johnston family of the Round Hill.

The burial place of the Kenyon clan follows in this study and once again there is only one marked grave in this family burial plot.

3. "In memory of/ Esther/ wife of/ Rogers Kenyon/ Died May 29, 1819/ Aged 50 years and/ five months."

CRITIC SAYS SPECIALS ARE BIG SUCCESS

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Now that the super-special TV season is well along, it seems time to assess the rights and wrongs of the system.

The 1959-60 TV year must be a source of satisfaction to Pat Weaver. It was he who conceived the idea of the special (he called 'em spectaculars) during his brilliant, brief career as NBC chief. He theorized that viewers would suffer boredom from the weekly diet of series.

What a blessing the special has been this year! Never has the program of series been so lackluster—the steady, violent outpouring of gunslings, both in chaps and blue serge. The season has seen no truly original series introduced to weekly programming.

Day Is Saved

The specials have saved the day. Some were bound to be good—there are so many of them. There is still plenty of room for improvement. Perhaps we can devise 10 commandments for special makers, drawing from the hits and errors of the season thus far:

1. Don't be name-crazy.
2. Strive for a different combination of names.
3. Take time. If it's special, it deserves special care, not sloppy work.
4. Spend for writing.
5. Make sure it's something special.
6. Don't rely on tape or film.
7. Don't underestimate your audience.
8. Don't get carried away with scenery. The play is still the thing.
9. But beware of underdoing scenery.
10. Don't be afraid to repeat a good thing. The best specials warrant re-plays.

Perhaps we should add another commandment—for networks to lavish some of the same thought and care on the pallid weekly shows that they do on specials.

time, pertaining to the Kenyon family except for the fact that they must have lived in the vicinity of Round Hill otherwise they would not have buried their dead in their old graveyard. In the old newspaper files there is but one item pertaining to this family—

1. Adams Centinel, Wednesday,

April 18, 1821—

"Married, Thursday, March 29, 1821, by the Rev. David McConaughy, Mr. William Moorhead to Miss Esther Kenyon, both of Adams County, Pennsylvania."

Note: Esther (Kenyon) Moorhead was the daughter of Rogers and Esther Kenyon and both she and her husband are buried, according to family tradition, in the old Moorhead-Robinette family graveyard near York Springs, this county.

It is reasonable to assume that Rogers Kenyon, the husband of Esther Kenyon, is also buried in the Round Hill Presbyterian Graveyard for there is a broken black slatestone beside that of Esther Kenyon, whose stone is also of black slate.

These notes will be continued in this column next week.

The first all-talking motion picture, "The Lights Of New York," was presented in 1928.

Let's Look At The Record

CHRISTMAS LIST

Give Him A Book Even If He Has A Book
Biographies Are Among Year's BestBy JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

THE PAST YEAR has been a good one for books. And, as usual, the book season reaches its climax with Christmas shopping.

There is the case of the chorus girl who said her boy friend had a book, hence she would not think of giving him another. But if the friend has a book, it is all the more reason why you should give him another. There is an ages old, Latin proverb: Cave ab homine unius libri," which, they tell me, means to beware of the man with one book. This suggests you always make a friend more acceptable when you increase his library holdings.

Eugene Field perhaps offered a better argument for books as Christmas presents when he wrote:

"Women are by nature fickle, and so are men. Not so with books. They cannot change. Years hence they are what you find them today; speaking the same words, holding forth the same comfort."

Nonfiction, generally speaking, has a more lasting quality than does current fiction; and a good Christmas present should have vitality beyond the following New Year's Eve celebration. Thus the following list of suggestions includes no novels.

UNITY, 1942-44, by Charles de

Gaulle, becomes Volume II of his memoirs. His first volume, CALL TO HONOR, published four years ago, is also available in more book stores. The French edition of a third volume is out, but has not yet been translated and published in English. De Gaulle's writings are a must for all men and women interested in contemporary Europe.

JAMES JOYCE, by Richard Ellman, is an 842-page opus costing $12.50 that could be the book to end books on James Joyce—but most likely isn't, more is the pity! A friend with a leaning toward the literati will deeply appreciate it.

On the other hand, BORSTAL LOY, by Brendon Benan, the gifted, contemporary Irish playwright, is less expensive and will bring its recipient up to date on present trends of the Dublin inspired brand of literature.

THE PAPERS OF BENJAMIN

FRANKLIN, Vol. 1, January 6,

1706, to December 31, 1734, is the beginning of an ambitious editorial task by L. W. Lafar and Whitman J. Bell Jr. They have obtained photostats of 27,800 manuscript pieces of Ben's private papers. The originals belong to 325 owners scattered throughout United States. This volume could be the first of a string of gift pearls such as one starts for a little girl. It is a Christmas present that will flatter the recipient.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON: Portrait in Paradox, by John C. Miller, is the most recent and highly authoritative biography of America's great master of money and finance. It is strongly recommended for such miserly friends as may be collecting etchings of Hamilton in the form that they appear on ten-dollar bills.

JOHN PAUL JONES: A SAILOR'S BIOGRAPHY, by Samuel

E. Morison, is the best salt water biography since the same author's COLUMBUS, Admiral of the Ocean Sea, published fifteen or twenty years ago. Morison's work on the ambitious, 14-volume HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES NAVY IN WORLD WAR II, has kept him from biographical writing during the intervening years. Volume XIII of this monumental work is also new in the book stalls. The last volume is well advanced, hence this series should be complete by this time next year. The entire set is an ex-Navy man's delight.

JONES, MENTIONED above, was enough of a Casanova to satisfy many readers, but there are always both men and women who welcome a refresher on the one and only original. For these the recently published Volume II of Arthur Machen's translation of THE MEMOIRS OF CASANOVA will be welcome.

all English readers, except the incomparable Sir Winston Churchill, with an inferiority complex toward the United States. This was most strongly manifested this year by the second-guessing, self-magnification prattle in this year's MEMORIES OF FIELD-MARSHAL MONTGOMERY and Sir Arthur Bryant's TRIUMPH IN THE WEST: A History of the War Years Based on the Diaries of Field Marshal Lord Alanbrooke.

These two books now reveal the best kept secret of World War II, to wit: These two English field marshals won the war. But their memoirs further reveal that each viewed it as a single handed operation on his part, though each does mention the other as an able assistant in the masterful deed. Even so, the books contain much good history and are welcomed by the veteran of the European Theater who still wonders why he was where he was during the eventful years 1942-45.

Going Back Home

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Granny Hamner, who jumped directly from high school to the major leagues 15 years ago, is coming back home next year as a playing coach for the Richmond Virginians of the International League.

The 32-year-old Hamner, who spent 11 of his 12 full seasons in the majors with the Philadelphia Phillies, was named Thursday night to replace Randy Gumpert, who has been given a scouting assignment by the New York Yankees.

Hamner, released at the end of the 1959 campaign by the Cleveland Indians, said he expects to play third base for Richmond, a Yankee farm.

Western Pennsylvania, western New York and West Virginia—Temperatures will average near normal in the north and a little below normal in the south. Colder over the weekend. Warmer Monday and colder Tuesday or Wednesday. Precipitation will average ¼ inch or less, occurring mostly as snow flurries.

Warriors Lace Westminster 60-36; Jayvees Also Win; Play At Delone Thursday

A much improved Gettysburg High School basketball squad got back into the win column here Friday evening by easily defeating winless Westminster 60-36. The win lifted the Warriors' record to 2-1 and the defeat was the fourth straight for the Owls.

Coach George Forney used Roger Ecker, Jimmy Townsend, Mike Small, Greg Maitland and Hardy Nichols as his starting unit and they turned in a brilliant bit of work in the first period when they raced out to an 18-3 lead.

Ecker and Small took care of the rebounds and the former led the attack in the period with eight points. Townsend and Nichols each hit twice from the floor and Maitland once. Maitland was particularly adept in intercepting passes and time and again halted Owl offensive moves. Westminster's only goal was by Bernie Bayline after 5:48 minutes.

Townsend Leads Attack

Townsend, who topped all scorers with 15 points, netted three shots in the second quarter as Gettysburg boosted its lead to 26-5 after 5:10 minutes. Coach Forney began to send in replacements the remainder of the half which ended with the Forney-men on top by a commanding 30-13 count.

Maitland accounted for the first five Warrior points in the third frame and then Nichols, Ecker, Small and Townsend broke into the scoring as the score soared to 46-23.

Early in the last round the replacements began to make their appearance and they encountered little trouble in protecting the big lead. Bayline, top man for Westminster with 13 points, netted six points and Mike Smelser closed five for the visitors in the closing minutes.

Scrubs Win First

The Warrior Jayvees broke into the win column for the first time after losing a paid by breezing to a 43-31 verdict in the preliminary. After a slow first period the Warriors trailed 4-2 but then turned in a well-balanced attack to grab an 18-12 lead at half time as they pulled steadily away thereafter. Tom Duane led the winners with 13 tallies.

Gettysburg travels to McSherrystown to meet Delone in the final game prior to the holiday vacation.

Coach Of Lions May Shift Staff

DETROIT (AP) — George Wilson, with a new contract to coach the Detroit Lions again next season, may do some shuffling on his coaching staff for the 1960 National Football League campaign.

The Associated Press learned today Wilson is contemplating a change involving one of his assistants.

Wilson has a vacancy on his staff. Buster Ramsey, Detroit defensive coach for eight years, resigned Wednesday. He became head coach of the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League.

The Lions' board of directors gave Wilson a contract for 1960 at a meeting Friday. Edwin J. Anderson was given a vote of confidence as president-general manager.

FAVOR TCU IN BLUEBONNET BOWL BATTLE

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Two beefy football machines, Southwest Conference co-champion Texas Christian and Atlantic Coast Conference titlist Clemson, meet head-on today in the Bluebonnet Bowl inaugural football game.

Dopesters picked the seventh-ranked Christians as 8-point favorites over the Tigers, the nation's No. 11 team. A crowd of at least 60,000 was expected for the clash in 70,000-seat Rice Stadium.

It was the second bowl outing for both teams in less than a year. TCU tied the Air Force, 0-0, last Jan. 1 in the Cotton Bowl while Clemson bowed to Louisiana State 7-0 in the Sugar Bowl.

Forecasters promised clear skies and temperature around 60 degrees. The game will be televised nationally (CBS) and broadcast over a national independent radio hookup.

Have Special Offenses

TCU Coach Abe Martin and Clemson mentor Frank Howard both indicated they had special offenses cooked up for the battle between two teams noted for tough defensive play. Each yielded an average of less than 200 yards per game through the regular season.

Fullback Jack Spikes, the Southwest's leading rusher, sparks the TCU offense. His Clemson counterpart, Doug Cline, has paced the Tigers in ball carrying the past two seasons.

A battle between two big, fast lines promised to be equally important.

All-America Don Floyd, 220, and Bob Lilly, 240, head the TCU tackles opposing Lou Cordileone, 245, and Harold Olson, 240, who won their share of laurels for Clemson. The Horned Frogs and the Tigers both are deep pin hefty alternates.

The Horned Frogs were favored on the basis of victories in their last seven games, including a 14-9 decision over previously undefeated Texas, for an 8-2 record TCU lost only to LSU and Arkansas. Clemson posted the identical mark, losing only to Georgia Tech and Maryland.

NAGY TO GIVE EXHIBITIONS AT EDGEWOOD

Steve Nagy, a member of the Brunswick advisory staff of champions, will appear at Edgewood Lanes, Emmitsburg Rd., in a special bowling exhibition at 2 and 8:30 p.m. Monday, December 28, it was announced today by Charlie Harner, owner.

The exhibitors will feature the formal opening of the Edgewood Lanes.

Now captain of the St. Louis Falstaffs, Nagy shared in that team's 1958 BPA national match game and ABC tournament championship.

Always a treat in the toughest competition Nagy was a pacesetter in the 1958 ABC tournament in Syracuse. He rolled games of 244, 227 and 238 for a 729 series to lead Falstaff's to the team title on a 3,210 total, third highest in ABC history. Nagy finished second in the individual all-events with 2,033, a scant 10 points behind the winner.

That performance by Nagy was second only to his brilliant play in the 1952 ABC tournament when he paired with Johnny Klaires for 1,453 pins in the doubles event to smash by 39 pins a record that stood unchallenged for 19 years. He also won the coveted all-events title, amassing 2,065 pins, and led his Cleveland Radiant squad to the team all-events championship.

As a member of the Brunswick advisory staff of champions, Nagy is one of the 60 of the nation's top tenpin performers who travel extensively to promote the sport through exhibitions and instruction sessions.

Delone Catholic notched its second straight basketball victory Friday evening by trimming West York 67-56 on the Bulldogs' floor.

The Squires, now 2-3, assumed a 15-10 lead in the first quarter and were on top the remainder of the way. A half time the score was 33-23.

Dan Miller, Squire veteran, hit the cords for 21 points with Bill Solomon sinking 17. Barry King and Taylor Ranker were high for West York with 12 and 11.

The Delone reserves won their first victory of the season after four losses by winning the preliminary 40-33.

Delone will meet Gettysburg High in a doubleheader at McSherrystown Tuesday evening.

Zettle Advises Poultrymen To Get Ready For Spring

By FRANK S. ZETTEL
County Farm Agent

Don't neglect the poultry range just because the pullets have been transferred to laying houses.

Drain the water lines unless they are buried deep enough not to freeze.

Clean out the brooder houses, range shelters, and feeding and watering equipment now. Store under cover all light, movable equipment such as feeders and fountains. Do these things while the weather is relatively pleasant and avoid a lot of traffic on the range in the spring when new vegetable growth is starting.

If a new range is to be used in the spring, move and locate all the cleaned equipment this fall. If the old range is to be used again, move the shelters, clean the areas, and then return them to the same locations. Additional bare spots on the range can be avoided by this practice. Top-dressing the range with fertilizer this fall or in early spring is available.

Take Soil Samples Now
There is still time to take soil samples before the soil becomes frozen for the winter. After freeze-up, it is difficult to take samples until the spring thaw.

Soil samples submitted to the Pennsylvania State University Soil Testing Laboratory in late fall and early winter are handled promptly, and lime and fertilizer recommendations usually can be made in about 10 days. Fertilizer needs are known in time then to take advantage of reduced winter prices of fertilizer.

In March and April more than half of the total number of samples for the year are received at the laboratory. Soil samples submitted at that time take about three weeks before recommendations can be made. Many times, fertilizer purchases must be made before the recommendations are received. Having your soil tested early will avoid the problem.

Soil test kits can be purchased at the extension office for one dollar per kit.

Applying two pounds of superphosphate per cow per day in the dairy stable gutter is one of the best soil-building practices known.

The soils of Adams County are notoriously low in phosphorus, and phosphated manure is the best way to build phosphorus reserves. However, many farmers object to using superphosphate in the gutter, because they think it corrodes stanchions and metal manure spreaders.

Chemists, steel producers, and fertilizer manufacturers say this corrosion cannot occur, since superphosphate is a neutral fertilizer containing no free acid. If it did contain free acid, for example, the fertilizer bags would fall apart very quickly. In fact, 50 per cent of superphosphate is gypsum, which is calcium sulfate or just plain plaster. When any free acid is present in superphosphate, lime is added to neutralize it, so the bags will not disintegrate. This practice is seldom used, because it is not necessary.

Instead of blaming superphosphate for corrosion, manure should be blamed instead, because it contains both organic acids and ammonia, which can be very corrosive upon chemical change.

Some farmers do not take good care of their spreaders. Many drop heavy loads of manure from fork lifts and gutter cleaners into spreader boxes. Others operate the machine when mechanical parts are frozen together or the manure itself is frozen. These practices cause undue wear on an expensive machine and far outweigh any supposed effect that superphosphate could impose.

LONDON (AP)—A letter from the Battersea City Hall arrived for 19-year-old Victor Brooker on the day after his funeral.

It demanded payment for sand used in cleaning up bloodstains after an auto smash.

Victor's widow collapsed when she read it. Her husband was killed in the accident.

FABIAN ASKS FOR GUARDIAN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fabian, the 16-year-old singer from South Philadelphia, is looking for a guardian.

A judge would have none of his suggestion Friday that Fabian's manager, 29-year-old Robert Marucci, become his guardian.

"We will not permit this boy's affairs to be put in the hands of an amateur," said Chief Judge Charles Klein, speaking for a panel of Orphans Court judges. "A guardian must be somebody who is completely disinterested."

Fabian's lawyer, Harry I. Back, said there was nothing wrong with the services of the present guardian, John Palmieri, but the young singer's "phenomenal success" called for other measures.

Marucci, a bachelor, heads Chancery Records. Fabian records under that label. He said his parents—Forte is the family name—approved the appointment of Marucci.

Judge Klein told Fabian and Back to return next week, after reassessing the guardianship question.

SHAH'S BRIDE RECEIVES GOWN

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Farah Diba, the 21-year-old former art student who becomes the bride of the Shah of Iran Monday, has received the final item in her trousseau — her Dior wedding gown.

She tried it on as soon as it arrived by plane from Paris Friday. The other dresses, coats and accessories that she selected on a recent Paris shopping spree were already in the Queen Mother's palace, where Farah is living temporarily. They fill about 60 pieces of luggage.

The wedding gown is a princess satin in a light bluish, pearl gray shade which designer Yves Matthew Saint Laurent selected for the bride. It has a veil to match and a cape-like bolero.

The setting for the wedding will be the Hall of Mirrors in the Marble Palace, where last week Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi entertained President Eisenhower with a lavish luncheon.

Sons Sue Man Who Killed Their Mother

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A man who was declared insane after killing his wife with a hammer last October is being sued by her sons.

The suit was filed Friday against Ezio Baldassarro, 67, now in Farview State Hospital for the Criminal Insane. Baldassarro admitted to police he attacked his wife, Concetta, 66, because they didn't get along during their four months of marriage.

Mrs. Baldassarro's five sons by a previous marriage are seeking $70,000 for their mother's estate.

SUGGESTIONS ON SPECIAL XMAS TABLES

UNIVERSITY PARK—If you're looking for table arrangements for your Christmas entertaining, Mrs. Marilyn Kramer, instructor in home art at the Pennsylvania State University, has some decorating ideas for you to use.

Gold spray is easy to use with many buffet and table arrangements, she says, and, while fairly expensive, will go a long way. Wax fruit and cones sprayed with gold and arranged in a horn of plenty of wicker, with two white tapers as a background and perhaps an angel in the center, make an effective buffet arrangement. Dried hydrangeas sprayed with gold and placed in a wicker basket with colored Christmas balls go well on a low coffee table. An eucalyptus, sprayed gold and arranged formally on a conventional flower holder, is a dainty centerpiece for a more formal tea. Pine branches sprayed white also set off an all-white arrangement of linen and Christmas balls.

Unusual Table Covers
Candles are lovely in holiday decorations and Mrs. Kramer suggests the very thin tapered ones as well as groups of used candles of various sizes and colors to produce striking table and buffet arrangements.

For your formal entertaining you might try place cards resting on inverted stem glasses which have been treated with glitter and trimmed with greens, ivy and a bow. A ball suspended in the glass, or a candle fastened to the base are most effective. An arrangement of larger goblets, decorated similarly, can be used as a centerpiece.

Mrs. Kramer also suggests you try unusual table covers during the season. Theatrical gauze in various colors may be used over aluminum foil for a striking effect, or a lace tablecloth over red tissue is very seasonal.

Easy To Prepare
On the table, shiny red apples can be used with candles and rhododendron in a foam-based arrangement. Mrs. Kramer suggests you keep the colors in your arrangements down to three or four, however, as too many colors can be distracting to the eye.

For New Year's Eve, a simple

Prisoners Stage Severe Prison Riot

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Prisoners staged one of the worst riots in the history of the Jackson County jail Friday night.

They were subdued after 40 minutes with a fire hose and tear gas. The 33 prisoners broke four or five bullet-proof windows with a metal mop wringer, stuffed paper in the broken windows and set it afire, smashed their television set, flooded the bullpen, shouted and banged their metal plates on the bars of their cells.

They complained about the food, but Sheriff Arvid Owsley said they may have been aiming at a mass escape from the jail, on the 12th floor of the courthouse.

VET IS CRITICAL

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Aged Confederate veteran Walter Williams remained on the critical list and "he's not going to get any better," a relative said Friday night.

Williams, 117, last surviving veteran of the Civil War, has been under an oxygen tent for almost two weeks suffering from pneumonia. He has been fed intravenously since Dec. 11.

KILLED IN CRASH

PERKASIE, Pa. (AP)—Abraham Renner, 80, of Perkassie R. 1, was killed Friday when his car and a tractor-trailer collided on Route 313 near here.

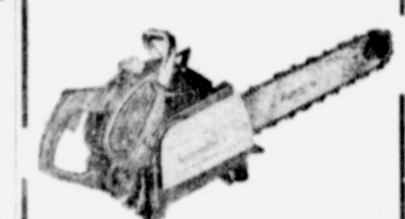

Police said Renner was making a left turn when his car collided with the rig, driven by Roger Maddus, 23, of Pipersville. Maddus was not injured.

There were 21,208 refrigerators in Austrian homes in 1952 and 199,108 in 1959.

decoration can be made from colored cellophane straws and Christmas balls. The straws of two colors are tied in bunches with string and fanned out. A cluster of such bunches of straws arranged loosely around the punch bowl and scattered with a few Christmas balls of a matching or contrasting shade is very colorful and easy to prepare.

Santa and the ICE KING

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

SYNOPSIS: Ononik and Santa have finally found the Ice King, busily grinding out harsh winter storms from his fearful ice castle. When Santa explained that he and Ononik had come as friends, the Ice King stopped his work and suddenly burst into tears.

Chapter Twelve
THE ICE KING'S STORY
Ononik marveled to see the Ice King cry. Even the King's tears were made of ice. They rained from his cheeks and clattered to the floor like hailstones on a roof. "What is it? What is the matter?" cried Santa in alarm.

"Nothing," replied the Ice King kicking away the tears. "It's just that you're the first to ever come here and call himself friend."

Then he told Santa how all his life he had lived alone in his frozen castle where not even a servant would live. How no one ever came to call. How he had no friends and everyone in the whole world hated him because he was winter itself and brought everyone cold and misery.

"But you are wrong!" protested Santa. "Winter has its proper place. Children love snow and animals love to hibernate and even grownups love to sit before their fires on stormy nights."

The King's face brightened. "Do they really like me?" he asked.

"Of course they do," replied Santa.

"But now," went on Santa sternly, "it is August. For four months the world has waited for spring and summer but still you send your ice and snow and frigid winds. That is wrong. Why do you do it?"

"It's because I am so lonely!" burst out the Ice King. "All winter I can keep busy making storms but in summertime there's nothing to do but sit and mope."

"Who would ever marry me," wailed the lonely Ice King.

So this year I decided I would just keep on making winter forever and that way I'll always be busy and happy too."

Santa shook his head sadly. "And so the whole world will freeze and starve."

The Ice King hung his head and walked away. "I thought since they hated me anyway I might as well be really hateful," he mumbled.

Santa took out his pipe and lit it. For a long while he smoked in silence and then he said, "You must get a wife."

"What?" cried the Ice King turning to stare.

"A wife. You must get a wife to love you and care for you and keep you from being lonely or feeling hateful again."

"A wife!" whispered the Ice King and his eyes softened and he began to smile. Then his face

NATO PLAN ON INTEGRATED AIR DEFENSE IS LAUNCHED

By TOM OCHILTREE

PARIS (AP)—The Western Allies have authorized first steps toward an integrated system to warn of an air attack on Western Europe but have left for Presidents Eisenhower and De Gaulle the major question of whether NATO could order French planes into action against the attack.

This is the chief result of the annual policy review by foreign, defense and finance ministers of the 15 members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The three-day meeting ended here Thursday with France agreeing to a formula for establishing the warning system but still refusing to put any of its air force under NATO's unified military command.

The United States wants forces of all NATO nations unified under the alliance's central command to defend Western Europe. In the face of De Gaulle's opposition, the Americans urged that at least an integrated air defense be started. But the French would not even agree to that.

Up To Top Level

Instead, the ministers left it up to Eisenhower—as well as British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer—to see if they could make some headway with the stubborn French President during the Western summit conference this weekend.

It seemed unlikely, however, that any immediate solution would be forthcoming.

The United States and all the other NATO allies except France hope the air warning system will be a start toward military unification.

Informants said that as far as the ministers' action went, it satisfied Gen. Lauris Norstad, Supreme Allied Commander in Europe. He feels the warning system is a pressing need.

Spaak Satisfied

Now he and his command can work out air defense strategy assuming there will someday be unity of command. They can even plan and build radar installations and communication centers in the NATO countries on the continent, including France.

The NATO ministers did not mention military integration in their final communique, which promised to "make a determined effort" to guarantee the necessary strength of the alliance.

Paul-Henri Spaak, NATO's general secretary, told skeptical newsmen that despite the routine wording of the communique, "I'm satisfied, very satisfied, despite your cynical smiles."

"I do not say that everyone is in agreement. But on the day that all technical questions have been answered, I assure you that we will find it easier to agree quickly."

None of the five starters on this year's North Carolina State freshman basketball team are from North Carolina. Two are from Indiana and one each from New Jersey, New York and Kentucky.
